

Director of Studies:

Dr Claire McLoone-Richards, (Senior Lecturer, Chair of Trauma and Violence Prevention Research Group) Interpersonal Relationships and Wellbeing Research Group, School of Psychology, University of Worcester

Supervisors:

Dr Jackie Bentley, (Senior Lecturer, Department of Pre-Registration Nursing) Interpersonal Relationships Research Group

A critical examination of the need to ensure nurturing, reflexive and resilient dispositions within practitioners, highlights the importance of this attribute to enhancing professional practice in supporting victims of abuse. Importantly, there is a recognition of the more troubling aspects of practice which silence or limit the authentic voice of the practitioner in expressions of sadness or anger within professional discussions and supervision. Bourdieu's concept of the Field (Bourdieu, 1989a, McLoone-Richards, 2021) gives

S

The success of our research is reflected in our continuous improvement in external research assessment processes. In the most recent Research Excellence Framework, REF 2021, the University saw a near 50% increase in the scale of its research and 12% increase in quality, building on its performance in REF 2014 when it was the UK's most improved university in terms of Research Power, a combination of scale and quality.

Research Degrees at Worcester

Our research students are central to our overall mission for research. They are working at the cutting edge of their disciplines and driving forward the quality o

